Duane Boise - President of EMED Jamaica stated that "two of the World's Top Experts on Chickungunya, Dr. Scott Weaver of the University of Texas Medical Center and Dr. Marc LeCuit of the Pasteur Institute in Paris, France will provide updates on the status of the epidemic, the likely spread of the virus, the latest research on vaccines and treatments. Both Dr's will be available to answer questions about the outbreaks and the ongoing impact to business, travel and commerce.

It will be an engaging and informative webinar and EMED hopes everyone will be able to join in and get the latest updates on research, vaccines, and answers to your questions to protect yourselves and your loved ones. Global Virus Network (GVN.org) is a coalition of the world's leading medical virologists working together to prevent illness and death from viral disease.

Chickungunya (CHIKV) is a mosquito-borne virus that causes high fever and severe, often chronic joint pain. In late 2013 it emerged in the Americas for the first time and has since spread rapidly throughout the region, infecting more than 1 million in the Caribbean and North, South, and Central America. CHICKV is very debilitating and has caused significant workplace disruptions in a number of the Countries hardest hit by the outbreak, with large percentages of the labor force missing work due to the symptoms related to the virus.

EMED is a Jamaican-based company that facilitates access to affordable healthcare solutions through out the Caribbean, Central and South America. It provides air ambulance evacuation, ground ambulance services and healthcare services, healthcare technology solutions, employer/employee benefit plans, medical marketing and promotional activities, continuity of care, and case management services as part of the end-to-end solution that it provides. "We are committed to ensuring our Jamaican and Caribbean members have access to internationally recognized high quality and professional services by our partners." said EMED's President Duane Boise.

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS...

Learning Spanish to advance your business

With the vast and rapid increase of our doing business with South America and other Spanish speaking countries, we believe that our member firms can significantly increase their competitiveness by acquiring Spanish as a 2nd language.

Accordingly, we are partnering with Intrepid Language Solution - a Colombian company setting up a presence in Jamaica - to provide a complete Spanish immersion program for our members. We invite you to learn more about this initiative by attending the introductory event on Thursday, February 5 at the Jamaica Pegasus Hotel (see attached invitation).

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC INVESTMENT & TRADE DEVELOPMENT SYMPOSIUM (IEITDS) 2015

The 2015 International Economic Investment & Trade Development Symposium will be launched on February 5th -6th, 2015 in the Bahamas. The Symposium provides an opportunity for specialists, professionals, experts, and faculty to exchange ideas, share knowledge, and establish valuable connections for present and future economic endeavors.

Under the theme 'Engaging Global Markets Through Entrepreneurialship, Investment, Trade, and Tourism Platforms', IEITDS 2015 will address the current international movement towards sustainability whether it's related to the environment, cultures, businesses, economies, and social infrastructures. Entrepreneurs, politicians, researchers and consumers are increasingly seeking to find solutions to the challenges of growing economies and businesses that are environmentally sustainable, socially just and rooted locally, and this symposium will offer you an opportunity to participate in such deliberations.

While the symposium will have international keynote speakers, parallel panel discussions, and networking opportunities, IEITDS 2015 will also include dedicated sessions for business practitioners and for investors, plus a marketplace where delegates can deliberate on economic opportunities and do business. The IEITDS 2015 includes interactive sessions on venture financing, intellectual property, strategic models, leveraging social media, business venture pitches, educational and tourism pitches, and opportunities throughout the two-day event to network with fellow delegates and professionals. For further information, please see the attached Bahamas Package document.
