TRADE IN SERVICES WORKSHOP

September 26 - 27, 2017

Trade in Services Workshop

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Foreign Trade, in collaboration with the World Trade Organization is staging a Trade in Services Workshop for Jamaica's Services stakeholders, from September 26-27, 2017.

The venue information will be communicated later but the workshop is scheduled to commence at 9:00 am.

The Workshop aims to examine Jamaica's trade in services commitments under the GATS and the CARIFORUM-EU EPA as well as the CARICOM Single Market and Economy (CSME) Services Regime. Information will be shared on the services sectors that Jamaica has liberalized, and where the policy space exists for the country to protect and regulate its services industries.

Participants will also have an opportunity to learn more about the European Union's services commitments under the CARIFORUM-EU EPA and opportunities that are available for Jamaica in the EU services market.

For more information and to confirm your participation in the workshop, please email symone.betton-neyo@mfaft.gov.jm or contact 926-4420-8.

II LAC Africa Business Summit 2017

The LAC Africa Business Summit is the flagship event of LAC Africa Ltd, the pioneer platform for investment and commercial and cultural cooperation between Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean.

The goal of the Summit is to be the world's most trusted and renowned platform for generating and facilitating investment and commercial cooperation between Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean.

The Summit attracts business leaders and investors, government entities, diplomatic missions, financial institutions, legislators, chambers of commerce and associations and renowned personalities from over 20 countries in Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean. Jamaica Chamber of Commerce (JCC) is one of the 2017 partners and two Jamaicans are apart of the panelist: Valrie Grant - Founder & Managing Director of GeoTechVision Enterprises Ltd, a member firm of the JCC & Trevor Fearon - Chief Executive Officer of the JCC.
