BOJ's Governor - Brian Wynter to be guest speaker at JCC "Breakfast Conversation"

The Jamaica Chamber of Commerce (JCC) invites you to cover "JCC Breakfast Conversation" with the Bank of Jamaica's Governor, Brian Wynter on Wednesday, October 18, 2017 at 8:00 am in the Caribbean Suite at The Knutsford Court Hotel, 16 Chelsea Avenue, Kingston 5.

Recently the Bank of Jamaica (BOJ) introduced a Foreign Exchange Intervention & Trading Tool -B-FXITT. The B-FXITT system covers both how the central bank buys and sells foreign exchange. In fact, BOJ dubs it as "the prescription". Business operators that foreign exchange availability and the rate of exchange is a factor in the operation of their businesses will join this conversation to find out, if B-FXITT is proving to be an answer to their problems? If it is in fact, the fix for modernization of the foreign exchange market? If it is the solution to help build a competitive economy & keep the exchange rate stable?

The Jamaica Chamber of Commerce (JCC) is a facilitator of dialogue and we are pleased to offer business operators the opportunity to exchange their thoughts with Central Bank's head, Brian Wynter in our upcoming Breakfast Conversation on Wednesday, October 18, at the Knutsford Court Hotel, 16 Chelsea Avenue, Kingston 5. Breakfast will begin at 8:00 a.m. Registration at 7:30 a.m. in the Caribbean Suite.

Over 50 persons from the financial and non-financial industry such as CEOs, CFO, and Managing Directors have registered to attend. Attendees include: Senior General Manager of NCB- Brian Boothe, PamJam Investments Chairman & CEO, Stephen Facey & Chief Financial Officer, Stephen Phillibert, Lasco Financial Services Managing Director, Jacinth Hall-Tracey, Chief Operators Manager of Kingston Wharves, Mark Williams, Massy Gas Products Chairman, Peter Graham, WM Wealth Management Head of Capital markets, Representatives from Sterling Assessment, Digicel's Chief Financial Officer, Noel Ryan and CIBC First Caribbean International and other top executives.

Join us for this adrenaline-charged "Breakfast Conversation".

We look forward to having you or a member of your team there!
